

Obituary: Lewellyn Dean RAINWATER

Was born Jun 18, 1926 to Lloyd and Katherine Rainwater in Dayton, WA. He passed away on October 9, 2003 in Spokane, WA after a brief battle with cancer.

Dean graduated from Dayton High School in 1944. He went on to serve his country in World War II and the Korean War. Dean graduated from Washington State College with a Bachelors in Business Administration in 1956 and was employed in a number of jobs that brought him in touch with the public. He easily made friends through his membership in several service organizations, including the Elks and Shriners. In addition, Dean was active in Washington State politics and served as a lobbyist with the Farm Bureau and on the House of Representatives staff. He was an accomplished speaker as a member of the Toastmaster's in Olympia, WA.

Dean is survived by his children; Craig Rainwater and wife Pamela Pasquale, of Seattle, WA, Kevan Rainwater and wife Leanne of Spokane, and Kathleen Rainwater and Wes Nicholls of Vancouver, BC. He also left behind three grandchildren; Malar and Santosh Rainwater of Seattle, WA and Heather Rainwater of Spokane, WA. Dean is survived by his brothers and their spouses; Dayle and Faye Rainwater, Dayton, WA and Lloyd and Carol Rainwater of Portland, OR and his sister in law Jean Rainwater, of Anchorage, AK.

The family would like to invite you to a service of memory for Dean on Saturday, October 18, 2003 at 5:00 pm at the Gathering Place, N 404 Argonne Rd., Spokane, WA. Burial will take place in Dayton, WA on Friday, October 17, 2003 at 2:00 pm at the Dayton Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers the family asks you to consider a donation in Dean's memory to the Shriner's Hospitals for Children, 911 W. 5th Ave., Spokane, WA 99204.

Published in print from 10/17/2003
Seattle Times