

Texas Tech Graduate To Substitute As Subject For Hypnotic Exhibition

Miss Helen Jackson, 1931 Texas Technological college graduate of 2024 Ninth street and an English instructor last year in Morton High school, will be hypnotized by Dr. de Zita at the Palace theater Thursday night. Miss Billie Gray, previously booked to appear, has gone to Tulsa to attend an ill sister-in-law.

"I thought it would be a very interesting adventure," said Miss Jackson, who is 20.

"She is very calm and steady-nerved," Dr. de Zita said in praising his subject. "It takes an intelligent and broad-minded person to be hypnotized. Miss Jackson meets those requirements."

From the Palace theater, Miss Jackson will be driven in a Rix ambulance to a window in the Plains Furniture company where she will remain. Friday's schedule calls for: Breakfast furnished by the Glorieta at 10 o'clock with the hypnotist; beauty work by Lubbock Beauty shop operators at 11 and a tea and conversation with de Zita at 4 o'clock. All these events will take place while Miss Jackson is under the hypnotic spell.

In his blindfold drive Friday de Zita will drive a Pontiac automobile west from the Palace to Avenue Q, thence south to Broadway. Stops along his route east on Broadway and through the city will include the Glorieta, the Lubbock Beauty shop, Levine's, the Avalanche-Journal, Drexel Tire service, Scoggin-Dickey Motor company, Rix funeral home, the new federal building, the courthouse, the city police station and thence back to the Palace.

#649

Texas Tech Graduate Sleeping After Hypnotic Test; Will Awaken Tonight

"You are perfectly at ease in every way. You will be safe. You will awake at exactly 9 o'clock tomorrow night. You are drowsy."

Dr. de Zita, hypnotist speaking: Miss Helen Jackson, Texas Technological college graduate, his subject. In exactly two minutes after Dr. de Zita passed his left hand before her face, the school teacher's eyelids were drooping. In another minute she was sleeping lightly on the ambulance cot on the Palace theater stage last night.

The hypnotist and psychoanalyst then awakened Miss Jackson and conversed briefly with her. Previously he had announced she would assume the role of a woman of noble birth; when she was awakened she conversed without hesitation with Dr. de Zita.

A Rix ambulance carried Miss Jackson, who taught English in Morton high school last year, to the Plains Furniture company window where she will remain for 24 hours. She will have breakfast furnished by the Glorieta at 10 o'clock this morning; she will undergo a facial treatment by Lubbock Beauty Shop operators at 11 o'clock; and at 4 o'clock she will have tea with de Zita.

Before she went to sleep, Miss Jackson was assured by de Zita if he died, if he were to be killed or kidnapped that she would be all right and would awaken at the appointed hour.

De Zita will climax his appearance here in a blindfold drive Friday in a Pontiac automobile. His route will be west from the Palace to Avenue Q, thence south to Broadway. Stops along his route east on Broadway and through the city will include the Glorieta, the Lubbock Beauty shop, Levine's the Avalanche-Journal, Drexel Tire service, Scoggin-Dickey Motor company, Rix funeral home, the new federal building, the courthouse and city police station and thence back to the Palace.

Lubbock Morning Avalanche
pg. 9, 10 June 1932

#650