

The Rainwater-Webb Family Bible

This large Bible is inscribed as the property of A. J. Rainwater. Aaron J. Rainwater, son of Levi N. and Hannah Smith Rainwater of Georgia, came to Texas prior to the Civil War. He was eventually joined by all of his siblings. When he died in 1892, the Bible passed to his widowed sister, Mary Rainwater Webb. In addition to preserving information about the family's births, deaths and marriages, the Bible has an unusual photo album section in the back which contains numerous tintypes and photographs. The Bible is presently owned by Mr. & Mrs. James H. Webb, Jr. The transcription was provided through the generosity of James & Mary Appleton.
