

Mrs. Thula Rainwater To Be Buried Monday

Special to The News.

GRAPEVINE, Tarrant Co., Texas, Jan. 2.—Mrs. Thula Rainwater, 66, died at her home in Grapevine, Tarrant County, early Sunday. Born May 8, 1871, in Tennessee, she came to Texas in 1900. Survivors are her husband, J. Emory Rainwater; three daughters, Mrs. Homer Moore, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Otto Oberle, Fort Worth, and Mrs. Nina Fulghum, Dallas; two sons, Hollis Rainwater, Dallas, and Walter Rainwater of Fort Worth; four stepchildren, Mrs. C. R. Haddin, Dallas; Mrs. W. E. Harmon, Dallas; W. F. Rainwater, Dallas; C. S. Rainwater, Dallas; three brothers, George Patterson, Bert Patterson, Bob Patterson; a sister, Mrs. Tex Patterson, Dandridge, Tenn. Funeral services will be held at 4 p.m. Monday at the Grapevine Methodist Church, the Rev. J. D. Ramsey, Dawson Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Grapevine Cemetery. Funeral arrangements with J. E. Foust Funeral Home, Grapevine.

#2588

Dallas Morning News, pg 12

3 Jan 1938

Note: J. Emory Rainwater is a mistake.
Her husband was James Monroe
Rainwater.