

The Estate Settlement of Jesse Gibson

Livingston Co., KY

L1541 Book "D", Inventory, Appraisal and Sale Bill Book, 1847-1851

11th day of November 1840

Jesse Gibson, dec'd.

Report of settlement by David Watts and David I. Flemming [or Flummry], two commissionmen of account for Livingston Co. with Samuel Gibson, executor of the last will and testament of Jesse Gibson, dc'd, at the clerk's office in the Livingstone Co. court this 11th day of November 1840.

Present - said Samuel Gibson, executor, Hitnisseth.
We find from the sale of the aforesaid decedent's estate returned to and now before us attested by said executor that the same amount to the sum of.....	$386.56
Said executor states that he has collected but one debt of said decedent, save what is included in the sale bill which he is here charged him	$1.12
Also received of Stephen Watson about	$6.00
the bal. of a note due said estate for	$80.00
 the balance being paid my father in his lifetime	<hr style="width: 100%;"/> $ 393.68
 We find that the executor has paid debts and dues of said decedent's estate as follows: Voucher No. 1, etc. [A long list of payments follows, totalling -]	<hr style="width: 100%;"/> $92.62
 The commissionmen think an allowance of twenty dollars reasonable and right to the executor for his trouble and do here allow the same by way of a credit	<hr style="width: 100%;"/> $20.00
	<hr style="width: 100%;"/> $112.62

Which leaves the executor indebted the said decedent's estate the sum of two hundred and eighty one dollars, 6½ cents. All of which is respectfully submitted to the county court of Livingston for confirmation, approval and record. Given under our hand this 11th November 1840.
