To my family:

According to information I have received, the original spelling of our last name in the old GàILÍC could possibly be from the sept (clan/tribe) of: (are you ready for this?)

MAC GIOLLA CHAINNIGH

Dealing with this name would be difficult in English, as you can see. So, spellings in English have come down to us in many forms. Many of these SCOTCH-IRISH families living in Ireland today can be found, especially in Counties Donegal, Derry and Tyrone, and some in Connacht.

From this old Scot spelling would come (as Dad always said, "Any McIlhaney, no matter how spelled, is related):

- McElhinn(e)y
- McIlhenn(e)y
- Macklehenney
- McIlhan(e)y
- McElhan(e)y
- Kilkenny

As you might guess, these spellings follow from the way the original was/is pronounced.

JAMES McILHANEY was born in Ireland in 1795, and migrated to America, settling in Mississippi where he met and married MARY JANE GIBSON from Kentucky. They migrated to Dallas, Texas and in 1853, settled in Coryell County, Texas on 320 acres by Rainey Creek.

James served as deacon and was a charter member of the First Baptist Church of Coryell County. He drowned in the fall of 1872 while crossing "Tonk Creek" riding on horseback on his way to Gatesville. The creek was flooded. His heavy clothing was thought to have prevented his saving himself — along with the cold of the water. He is buried in the Coryell cemetery at Coryell, Texas. Records from the church show their children to be: MARGARET, MINERV, R. BECCA, JANE and WILLIAM JAMES GIBSON McILHANEY.

Sincerely,

Sam McIlhaney
JOHN RICHARDSON MC ILHANEY

This an attempt by an amateur, using only information furnished by John's children and grandchildren, to follow the lineage of this beloved gentleman from his Grandfather, James William McIlhaney, born in Ireland, down line to early 1994. No one has produced the date he came to America or the place in Ireland where he was born. The first information furnished us of his activities in America indicate he first settled in Tippah County Mississippi. We are told this is where he took Mary Jane Gibson, a one fourth Cherokee Indian, as his bride. It is indicated that their first child, Margaret Mc Ilhaney, was born in 1829. It is also indicated that she as well as all her siblings, except two sisters, but including John's father were born in Tippah County Mississippi. Those two sisters are reported to have been born in Tennessee.
