

RAINWATER'S AMBITION SPOILED.

ST. LOUIS, March 2.—Gov. Marmaduke has returned to Jefferson City, and so far there has been no meeting between him and Major Rainwater. The published statement of Gov. Marmaduke which linked Rainwater's name with Stiles, a notorious detective, has killed Rainwater's chances for securing the Democratic nomination for Mayor. Until the publication the nomination was conceded to him, but now the Democrats are looking for a compromise candidate, and D. R. Francis, President of the Merchants' Exchange, is being urged to make the race.

The New York Times

Published: March 3, 1885

Copyright © The New York Times