

The following is an alphabetical listing of Cherokee names classified as "Doubtful" and "Rejected" by the Dawes Commission. The person's sex is followed by the "D" or "R", the code for the Doubtful and Rejected series. The information was transcribed from microfilm located in the Grant Foreman Room at the Muskogee Public Library.

The 14" x 7" cards are annotated with information for each applicant, such as post office address, previous tribal enrollments, relationship to the head of the family, degree of blood, names of parents, references to related enrollment cards, and actions taken.

The Dawes Commission began the enrollment of Cherokees under the Curtis Act of 1898. Under the August 7, 1902, agreement with the Cherokee Tribe, eligibility for enrollment was restricted to persons who were born prior to September 1, 1902. The Act of April 26, 1906, authorized the enrollment of children living on March 4, 1906, whose parents were enrolled or had applications pending.
