Description:

Becoming the twenty-fifth state in 1836, Arkansas was home to hundreds of thousands of residents throughout the nineteenth century. This database is a collection of marriage records from Hempstead, Pike, and Washington Counties between 1851 and 1900. Taken from microfilm copies of original county documents, each record provides spouses' names, marriage date, and county of residence. It contains the names of over 33,000 men and women. For those persons seeking ancestors from early Arkansas, this collection can be a useful source of information.

Extended Description:

This update adds the records from Hempstead County.

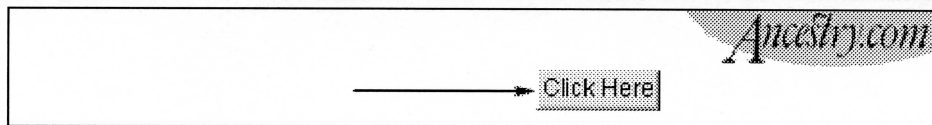

Hempstead County records span 1851 to 1899. The county is located along the Little River in southwestern Arkansas, near the border with Texas. Hope is the county seat.

Pike County records span 1875 to 1900. The records for 1877 to 1881 were extracted from the County Court House. The county is located in southwestern Arkansas. Murfreesboro is the county seat.

Washington County records span 1863 to 1900 and is located in northwestern Arkansas, on the border with Oklahoma. Fayetteville is the county seat.
