Description:

Bordering Alabama in eastern Mississippi, Lowndes County was created in 1830 from neighboring Monroe County. This database is a collection of marriage records from the county in the latter half of the nineteenth century. Taken from microfilm copies of original county documents, each record provides spouses' names, marriage date, and county of residence. It contains the names of over 24,900 men and women. For researchers of early Mississippi ancestors, this collection can be helpful and informative.
