

ALBION (GUY) CEMETERY, Albion, Whitman County, WA - RAINWATER EXCERPTS

The US GenWeb Archives provide genealogical and historical data to the general public without fee or charge of any kind. It is intended that this material not be used in a commercial manner. All submissions become part of the permanent collection.

Burial list of Albion (Guy) Cemetery by Weston and Carrie Lartigue and Ann Emerson. Submitted by John Sherwood July 4, 1997. Both above notices must remain when copied or downloaded.

johnedjr@sbcglobal.net

ALBION (GUY) CEMETERY, Whitman County, Washington
T15N R44E Section 15

The first cemetery was in town, but in 1906 it was moved to the southwest side of the Palouse River and the O. R. & N. tracks, which was the first railroad in the area.

LOCATED: Plat book A at the Courthouse says NE 1/4 of Sec. 15, Twp 15N, Range 44 EWM.

On a hill overlooking town of Albion. Established Dec. 17, 1891 and another portion established June 24, 1898. Under care and in nice shape. Some thoughtful person had placed blocks with names on the graves with no tombstones. Earliest date of birth here was 1806 and the earliest date of death 1879. Copied Aug. 27, 1973 by Wes and Carrie Lartigue. Partially updated May, 1995 by Ann Emerson.

Rainwater, Claire, d/o W. L. & C. H., Jan. 3, 1905-Feb. 19, 1905
Rainwater, Fay Cleo, s/o W. L. & C. H., Feb. 15, 1903-June 11, 1903