HYATT CEMETERY
EST. 1921

Listing Compiled by Evelyn E. Cole and Roberta B. Doty - July 31, 1992
Annotations by La Vaughn H. "LV" Hayes are preceded by LVH

Hyatt has lots of cedar trees and flowering shrubs. The trees make it much cooler because you have shade to stand in. The grass grows beautifully here. The public water system has reached this area, and a water faucet has been installed near the front gate. There is a large shelter with tables and benches just inside the cyclone fence to the left.

To reach Hyatt Cemetery from Fields, travel south about 2 miles till you see a big sign on the left (east) side of LA 109. Follow Hyatt Cemetery Road almost a mile: the road will fork in a residential area; take the right or straight ahead road...about 1/4 of a mile further, the road will end at the cemetery. There is a large parking/turn-around area.
