George Holland Patterson

Hollie was born October 19, 1895 in northern Tuscaloosa County, Alabama. His parents were James "Jim" Alford Patterson and LouVinia "Vinnie" Oswalt. He died September 1968 and is buried between his two wives in the cemetery at Macedonia Baptist Church in northern Tuscaloosa County. Hollie and Carrie Hallman were married November 15, 1913. She was born June 6, 1893 and died March 16, 1920 in a tragic accident that took her life when their buggy overturned. Carrie threw her two young sons, Cecil and Ratia, to safety but she was not so fortunate.

Hollie was skillful at raising fruit trees. He always had beautiful trees growing around his house, plus an apple orchard. He did some farming and gardening. He was a Baptist Minister and pastored churches in Fayette and Tuscaloosa Counties. He was clerk for the Sipsey Baptist Association for thirty-seven years, 1931-1967. Lillie's yard was one of the most beautiful in the neighborhood.

Children of Hollie and Carrie: (1) George Cecil Patterson (born 1915) married Beatrice Montgomery, daughter of Murk and Lela Jones Montgomery. (2) Alfred Ratia Patterson (born 1918) married Anna Loyal Williamson, daughter of William Eddie Williamson and Maggie Weaver.

Hollie married second Lillie Mae Oswalt. Lillie Mae was born to parents, William Oswalt and Bama Freeman. She was born February 4, 1893, killed May 22, 1920.
