The State of Alabama
Petit County

On the sixteenth day of October in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-one, pursuant to an act of Congress passed July third, eighteen hundred and eighty, the undersigned, Charlotte P. Harris, of the State of Alabama, age twenty-two years, being first duly sworn according to law, did, in the presence of the following subscribers, in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed July third, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following arms and service, and under the following command:

That he entered the service in a light horse company commanded by Alexander Irving, who was under the command of Capt. Charles McDowell, the applicant was promoted to an office of general. He at that time resided in the County of Carter, in the State of North Carolina. He entered as a volunteer. The Company to which he belonged was engaged principally in ranging through the County in which the applicant resided, looking after the Settlements of British Tories. He died at that time on or about June 5, 1832, and continued in the service about two weeks.

Sometime in the latter part of the year 1783, the applicant fought with the Tories, and was removed from the County of Carter to the County of Raleigh. About the month of January or February 1784, the applicant again volunteered in the service. He joined a Company in February, in which he was chosen Surgeon of the Company, and served in that capacity for some two or three months under the command of Lieutenant-Commander Capt. John Anderson. About the beginning of the summer of that year Lieutenant-Commander Anderson was killed, and the applicant was immediately elected in his place.

In the latter part of the year, a small body of men, consisting of some six or eight (in two different detachments) months, were ordered to the County in which the applicant was, and, after much fighting and defending the various Settlements, they were subject to the presence of the Indians.

The applicant was not engaged in any considerable battle.

The applicant was not personally, but few of the regular officers, not having command directly under them. He knows nothing of Col. Washington and Gen. Lee better and he was engaged near him. He belonged with the Company from Franklin, to which he belonged, and was given by Capt. Robin

Porter.

Applicant states that he has now no documentary evidence of his service—he has had discharge, but does not expect to have any, as far as the best letter can be found and does not now know what is become of these, and he knows no person, except the Capt. and Col., to whom the applicant refers where training in command, who conspicuously to his service.

He hereby acknowledges every claim whatever to be founded or granted except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.

You will, when you return your papers to this Department, send this printed letter with them, and you will, by complying with this request, greatly facilitate the investigation of your claim.
