APPENDIX B

EARLY CHURCHES in McLENNAN COUNTY

(1848-1876)

BAPTIST: Missionary Baptist

1. Waco Baptist Church (First): In the latter part of the year 1850, at a meeting of the Mission Board of the old State Convention with the church at Huntsville, Texas, an application was made for a small appropriation ($75.00 per annum) to sustain a missionary for a part of his time at Waco, then a frontier village. Rev. Noah T. Byars, a pioneer Texas Missionary (b. 1808 in S.C.; d. 1888 in Brownwood, Texas) gave notice on the following May 31, 1851 calling the Baptists together. They met in a board shanty or hut at the corner of Jackson & Second Streets, loaned to them by the Methodists. Charter members were James C. Johnson, George T. Holman, Noah Woods, and Sister Matilda Johnson. Rev. Byars served the church for the rest of the year. (The story that the Texas Declaration of Independence was written at his home prior to the Texas Revolution was recently disproved.) Rev. Byars soon became President of a Baptist Classical School, the predecessor of Baylor University.

   Other early members by 1854 were (in order of membership): Rebecca Edwards, Mary Ann Holman (consort of G.T.), Mrs. Mary Barron, F.F. Bloodworth, Emiley J. Bloodworth, E. H. Herrington, Ann Herrington, Frances E. Adams, George W. Edwards, Bentley Arnold, Clementine Arnold (his wife), Mary Ann Arnold and Summer Francis Arnold (their daughters), Cato (servant of Brother Arnold), Ann Jane Alexander, Ann E. Rowe, Julia Byars, Laura Alstin, Philip (property of John T. Burton), Silvy (property of Mr. Gurley), James J. Riddle, Margaret E. Riddle, John Y. Riddle, Caroline Riddle, Mrs. Sarah Pucket, Nancy (property of Brother Herrington), Wm. M. Hammack, George Bird, Malinda E. Bird.

   Ministers (1851-1876): Noah T. Byars (1851-3), Solomon Green O'Bryan (1853-9), W.H. Bayliss (1860-2), Rufus Columbus Burleson (1863), W.H. Anderson (1864), Rufus Columbus Burleson (1865-7), Martin B. Hardin (1868-9), Rufus Columbus Burleson (1870) & Benajah Harvey Carroll (1871-99).
