WOOD, Tom 1832 - 1862

Mrs. Josie WORTHY HOLMAN related the following story to Louis Taunton in 1969. Mr. WOOD was a day laborer for Mr. E.B. CLARK. Reportedly Mr. WOOD was shot and killed by Bill WARREN in Mr. CLARK's barn lot. WARREN fled to Texas but later returned to get his wife and baby. Mr. WARREN loaded his wagon so as to leave during the night. Tom WOOD's two brothers, Joel and Wallace, upon hearing of WARREN's return and expected departure, hid near WARREN's house and waited in ambush. As WARREN started from his house, with his baby in his arms, the WOOD's brothers opened fire. The baby was killed and WARREN was wounded very badly. WARREN's wife sent for the doctor, Mrs. Emily WRAGG. Upon Mrs. WRAGG's arrival, WARREN asked her to pray for him. In reply Mrs. WRAGG told WARREN that he needed to pray for himself. Being the practical minded individual and a doctor of some note in Choctaw and Winston Counties,
