BILLY JOHNSON KIRK, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kirk, died in a Waco Hospital Sunday. He was 4 weeks old. Funeral services were at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Johnson with burial in McGregor Cemetery. McGregor Mirror: Aug 8 (1-1) 1930.

THIS IS COMPLETELY WRONG—WRONG PARENTS, WRONG HUSBAND

MRS. PEARL BOYD died Wednesday, July 29, 1930, in a hotel in San Saba while enroute to Gatesville from Llano. Her body was taken to Gatesville and burial was in McGregor Cemetery beside her husband. Mrs. Boyd was born November 5, 1878, and was the widow of Felix Boyd (3/16/1877-1/13/1921) who died several years ago. Survivors include two children: Thomas Boyd of Waxahachie and Felix Boyd of Llano. One daughter, Rose Elizabeth Boyd, preceded her in death. McGregor Mirror: Aug 8 (1-5) 1930.

Mrs. Boyd was the daughter of Dr. W. W. Kirkland of Osage. One sister also survives, Mrs. John W. Boyd of Gatesville.

McGregor Mirror: Aug 15 (1-1) 1930.

J. B. HORTON, age 2, died Wednesday, August 13, 1930, of blood poisoning which developed from a small scratch on his head. He was born December 29, 1927, the son of Carl Horton and Rena R. Horton. He is survived by his parents; and one brother, Albert Horton (1924-1933). McGregor Mirror: Aug 15 (1-6) 1930.

MRS. PRESTON CARTER of Abilene died yesterday. Mrs. A. J. Mann of McGregor, Mrs. Carter's aunt, left immediately for Abilene to be there for the funeral. McGregor Mirror: Aug 15 (4-1) 1930.

MR. W. P. JOHNSON died in Waco, Thursday, August 14. He was
This appears to be the concatenation of two different Felix Boyds and their wives.

The individual who died in San Saba was Pearl Hardy Boyd. According to her death certificate (#36605 issued in San Saba County, Texas), she was the daughter of Margaret and E. Cole Hardy. She was also the widow of a Felix Boyd who had died in 1921.

The individual with whom she has been confused, Emma Kirkland Boyd, was the daughter of Dr. William Wilson Kirkland and his wife Polly Ann Kellum, of Osage. Emma was also married to a Felix Boyd, who died in 1928. Emma died in 1942. These couples are buried in Osage Cemetery in Coryell County, Texas.
