LaVonne Compton Complimented at Tea Given Friday

Miss LaVonne Compton, whose marriage to William L. Crawford III will take place Tuesday, Dec. 3, was complimented at a tea for forty guests given Friday afternoon by Mrs.
Schuyler Worthington and her mother, Mrs. S. B. Perkins, at Mrs.
Worthington’s home, 3225 Southwestern.

The guests were received by the hostesses and the honoree, Miss Georgia Carey, and Miss Mary Blakney.
The reception suite was decorated with bouquets of white chrysanthemums in silver bowls. The tea table was centered with an arrangement of crystal leaf holders filled with white pompon chrysanthemums. White taps ners burned in silver candelabra on either side of the centerpiece. Mrs.
C. V. Compton, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. William L. Crawford II, mother of the bridegroom-to-be, presided at the silver tea service.

Miss Compton will be complimented with a luncheon Wednesday, Nov. 20, at which Mrs. J. G. Webster will be hostess at her home, 3900 Gillon. Mrs.
Worthington is planning to entertain after Christmas honoring Miss May Beth Thompson, bride-elect of Dr.
Robert Moore.
