

DEATHS IN DALLAS

Loughlin.—Funeral service for Mrs. T. F. Loughlin, 56 years old, who died Monday night at the home of the family, 1213 North Haskell avenue, was held at the Sacred Heart Cathedral at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, the Rev. Father H. H. Diamond saying high mass. The burial was in Oakland Cemetery.

Gregory.—James H. Gregory of Pryors, Ky., died in a local sanitarium yesterday. Funeral service will be held at the residence of his brother-in-law, B. T. Howard, 418 South Waverly Drive, at 8 o'clock this morning, and the body will be sent to Wingo, Ky., for burial. Mr. Gregory, who was 55 years old, is survived by two sons, Charles M. and Clay Gregory of Altus, Ok.

Funeral of J. D. Bowen Today.

Funeral service for J. D. Bowen, 38 years old, who died Monday, will be held at the home of the family, 1306 Wood street, at 10:30 o'clock this morning, the Rev. George W. Truett officiating. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery. Pallbearers will be: J. W. Crisler, Ford House, Henry Lewis, M. D. Fowler, Forest McGinn and W. D. Brazzell.

Mr. Bowen was born in Dallas, and in business here for a number of years. Ten years ago he moved to Omaha, Neb., in the hope that a change of climate would be beneficial to his health, which had failed. He came back to Dallas two years ago, since which time he had been an invalid. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, his mother, Mrs. Violet Bowen, and a sister, Mrs. John F. Knox.
