ALLEGED BARON ARRESTED

Was Billed To Speak Under Auspices Of Red Cross.

York, Pa., Dec. 24.—An alleged Austrian baron was arrested here today on the charge of being a faker. It was announced that Baron von Orgler, a lieutenant in the Austrian Army, would speak in a local theatre under the auspices of the American Red Cross Society.

When questioned at police headquarters the alleged baron admitted that his only connection with the Red Cross Sociey was that of a contributor and that he gave to the organization 20 per cent.
of the receipts of his lectures.
