I am in receipt of your application for mortuary warrant on account of the death of M.W.Halbert, confederate pensioner. This application is being approved today and warrant for same will be immediately issued and mailed to your address.

Your application for confederate pension cannot be approved since you were shown in the application to be only 59 years of age.

The pension laws of this state require that a widow applicant must have been born prior to the close of the year 1861 to be eligible for confederate pension. Your age as shown in your application indicates that you were bron much later than the close of the year 1861.

I regret my inability to approve your application at this time but same will be kept on file in this office and may be renewed at any time should the laws of this state be amended so as to permit approval of same.
