

Last will and testament of Philip Emmet, deceased:

I, Phillip Emmet of the County of Sevier and State of Tennessee, do make my last will and testament in manner and form following that is,

I give to my wife Elizabeth Emmet all my perishable property to raise my children on and to increase the estate of my heirs and I give my wife this plantation whereon we now live while she lives single or till my youngest child comes of age and then my son Frederick Emmet shall have it and shall maintain her while she lives unless she marries then the perishable property shall be sold and the money taken care of for my children and the plantation that I bought of Arnet Shields I give to my son Daniel Emmet and it shall be rented and the rent sold for money and it lent out on interest till my youngest child comes of age and my daughters shall have an even divide. I give them two hundred dollars in property a piece and if my property should fail and come short of paying them my sons Frederick and Daniel C. Emmet shall make it up to them and shall have sufficient time to pay them as the executors may conclude right and at my wife's death I give all to my children and their heirs forever

I do hereby constitute and appoint my friend, Frederick Emmet, Junior and Elizabeth Emmet Executors of this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all others as former wills and testaments by me heretofore made

In witness whereof I have unto set my hand and seal this 20th day of March in the year of our Lord 1821.

Phillip left a will dated 10 Mar 1821, but no probate date was given. He left to my wife "my perishable property to raise my children." He names only two sons. It is believed he lived with his wife Elizabeth in the Middle Creek area.
