

Miss Violet Bowen Wins First Prize in Water Pageant

Miss Violet Bowen of Dallas won first prize in the intercity water pageant held Wednesday night at Dal-Oak Amusement Park, when a record crowd gathered for the evening's program. Miss Libby May Newman won the first Fort Worth prize, which was given to the entrants from that city.

Judges for the contest were Acting Mayor John C. Harris, Frank Shoup and H. M. Niel of Houston.

Miss Elinor Wilkins, winner of the Bathing Girl Revue at Galveston, and thus selected to represent the State as "Miss Texas" at the Atlantic City contest, was introduced.

A number of acts were staged at the park, the Four Matlocks offering an acrobatic number which was heartily received. After the program a large number of the visitors danced on the "Jolly Roger" an open-air dancing pavilion in the park.
