MRS. BYRON RAINWATER JR.

Miss Marjorie Marie Brown
Bride of Byron Rainwater Jr.

A reception at the Dallas Athletic Club followed the wedding of Miss Marjorie Marie Brown and Byron Hudson Rainwater Jr. of Ruston, La.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Brown, 4110 Newton, the bride attended Texas State College for Women and graduated from Southern Methodist University. She belonged to Sigma Kappa sorority and Pi Delta Phi honorary.

Mr. Rainwater, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Rainwater of Ruston, attended Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., and is a graduate of Louisiana Polytechnic Institute where he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Church of the Incarnation was the setting for the wedding Friday night performed by the Rev. Curtis W. Jumper. Music was presented by Miss Peg Bia and Mrs. R. B. Landress.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle in the blush pink tone. The strapless bodice of lace was adorned with tulle and topped with a veil and appliqued in floral motif. The full tulle skirt had lace panels and was three-quarters-length. Her veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of satin and seed pearls. She carried pink gardenias atop a white prayerbook.

Maid and matron of honor were Miss Helen Lucas and Mrs. A. J. Weir of Irving, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Louise Vadera and Miss Jayne Fuller of Ruston.

William S. Baskin, Ruston, served as best man. Groomsmen were Mr. Weir, Hugo Hines and George Fullwood of Fort Worth.

In the house party at the reception were Mrs. Hines, Miss Betty Harper, Miss Dorothy Vaughan and Mrs. Al Bedford.

Following a wedding trip to Denver, Colorado Springs and Estes Park, Cola., the bridal couple will reside in Ruston.
