

DALLAS SOCIAL AFFAIRS.

The Dallas Golf and Country Club entertained yesterday afternoon with a Colonial tea from 3 to 6 o'clock and with a ball last night.

The clubhouse was decorated with the National colors and the flowers of spring.

The hostess, at the afternoon reception and tea, was Mrs. C. C. Tuttle, and in her house party were Mesdames C. H. Munger, Ed Reardon, Robert Reardon, Seth Miller, Alex Coke, Henry Coke, John O. McReynolds, Edward Gray, Fritz Cochran, Lewis Dabney, Scates, E. R. Meek, Manning Shannon, Edwin Kleet, E. O. Tenison, Rebecca Hughes of Ennis and Misses Franchelle Smith, Rozelle of Little Rock, Brooksie Smith, Dunn, Hastings, Anne Atkins, Nichols, Roberta Connor, Hester Allen, Willie Ponder, Buxton, Lila Tenison, Bolanz, Burford, Evelyn Fargo, Anne Sorrells, Sara Pace, Carrie Murphy, Margaret Perkins, Edith Everman and Edith Duggan.

The hostess of the afternoon and the house party dined at the club and remained for the ball at night, which was in charge of Messrs. Campbell and Roy Terrell.

The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Aldredge Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. L. A. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. Volney Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Cleaver, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gaston, Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Landsley, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith, Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Taber, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Dunbar and Mrs. Rebecca Hughes of Ennis.

Miss Carrie L. Bowen and John R. Knott were married yesterday evening at the residence of Rev. George W. Truett, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who performed the ceremony.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bowen.

The bride wore a traveling costume of gray chiffon broadcloth over a gray silk drop skirt made of her mother's wedding dress. Her hat of French chip matched her costume and she carried bride roses. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Knott left for Galveston, and upon their return will be at home at 238 Wood street.

The dance at the Elks' Club last night was one of the formal quarterly events and was a full-dress affair. The committee in charge was C. A. Roden, John A. Ewton and W. H. McGrath. A buffet luncheon was served and there were about sixty couples present.
