RAINWATER'S TRIAL TODAY

Justice Landrum Announced He Was Disqualified. Paul Rainwater, Slayer of Frank Slappey, To Be Given a Commitment Trial This Morning.

Paul Rainwater, the fourteen-year-old son of Charles A. Rainwater, was taken before Justice Landrum yesterday afternoon for a commitment trial for the killing of Frank Slappey with a knife.

Justice Landrum stated that he was related to Mr. Rainwater, and was therefore disqualified to hear the case. The case was removed to another court.

As has been stated in The Constitution, Paul Rainwater and Frank Slappey, two boys of about the same age and size, engaged in a fight last Friday afternoon about a small dog and Rainwater drew his knife and stabbed Slappey in the side.
