

10 April 1886 Pulaski County, Kentucky

Book 7 Page 182

Know [unreadable] by the [unreadable] that I, S. Weddle in the County of Pulaski and State of Kentucky [unreadable] last will and testament.

First, I give and bequeath to my loving [or living] beloved wife Patsy, the farm and [unreadable] of all kind and all other [unreadable] including the house [unreadable] for her benefit during her natural life and I appoint her to fill the [unreadable].

Second, I give and bequeath to my daughters fifty dollars each in [unreadable] I give my sons, this is to make them equal, they [unreadable] by the execution where the estate is wound up. [Unreadable] of the estate, I give and bequeath to my sons and daughters to be divided in equal shares among them. I [unreadable] the executors to see their families kept up and aid [unreadable] and collecting debts. These are [unreadable].

[Unreadable]...and appoint Galen E. Weddle, Jacob T. Weddle to be the executors to wind up all the business, and reserve one half [unreadable, possibly a number] acre of land for a grave yard and [unreadable] them to sell the land and all the property. This is my last will and testament this April the 10th 1886.
S. Weddle

State of Kentucky, County of Pulaski

I John S. May, clerk of Pulaski County Court, do certify that the foregoing instrument of [unreadable] purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of S. Weddle, deceased, was at the April [unreadable] 1890 of the Pulaski County Court, presented in April Court and the hand writing of the said S. Weddle, deceased, being proved according to law by the oaths of G. E. Weddle, James M. Weddle and James T. Eastham to be the [unreadable] last will and testament of S. Weddle, deceased. And said instrument was ordered by the court to be admitted as such [unreadable abbreviation] Last Will and Testament of S. Weddle, deceased. Wherefore I have recorded it and the [unreadable].

Given unto my hand this May 6th 1890.

att. John S. May, clerk

182

Will. Known and made by this present that I, S. Weddle in the County of Pulaski and the State of Kentucky, considering the uncertainty of this life, and being of sound mind and memory, do make and declare and publish this my last Will and Testament.

First, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Polley, the farm and the lot of all kind and all other property, including the horse barn and kitchen, furniture and cash notes, to have and hold for her benefit during her natural life, and I appoint her to fit the children off as the balance was the, three that is single.

Second, I give and bequeath to my daughters, Polly, William each in line of a share, I give each of my sons, this is to make them equal this to be paid by the executor when the estate is wound up.
 Third, the remainder of the estate I give and bequeath to my sons and daughter to be divided in equal shares to them.
 I want the executor to see the farm is kept up, and aid their mother, clothing it out, collecting debt of them over.

Fourth, I nominate and appoint John E. Weddle, Jacob S. Weddle to be the executor to wind up all the business, and receive one half a acre of land for a grave yard and I empower them to sell the land & all property. This is my last Will & Testament this April the 18. day 1886.

S. Weddle

State of Kentucky

County of Pulaski, 3rd.

I, John S. May, Clerk Pulaski County, Court, do certify that the foregoing instrument of Writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of S. Weddle deceased, was at the April Term 1890 of the Pulaski County Court, presented in open Court, and the hand writing of said S. Weddle deceased, being proved according to law, by the Oaths of J. E. Weddle, James M. Weddle & James S. Crosthwaite, the said deceased's witnesses, to be the true last Will and Testament of S. Weddle deceased.
 And said instrument was ordered by the Court to be admitted to record as such True Last Will and Testament of S. Weddle deceased, Wherefore I have recorded it and this certifies in my said office. Given under my hand this May 6th 1890.

John S. May

#310