Notes for JOHANN BALTZER "BALZER" (DOTTER) TARTER:

Patty, from baptismal records we only know that Johann Balthaser Doetter had four children for sure:

1. a son whose name I don't know from Host Church, Berks County, PA;
2. Eva Magdalena born 10 July 1761 in Berks Co, PA from Christ Lutheran Church, Berks County, PA
3. Johann Peter born 26 Feb 1763 in Berks Co, PA from Christ Lutheran Church, Berks County, PA
4. Catherine Elizabetha born 7 July 1771 from St. Lukes Church, Lebanon County.

This information was provided by Elmer Tarter Oakley as she received it from Heber T. Hertzog.

Other children are attributed to Baltzer from his will. Margaret named could be Anglicized Magdalena or could be another daughter altogether.

Johann Anthon Doeter, Baltzer's father arrived in Philadelphia 11 August 1750 on the ship "Patience" (name translated as Anton Devittus in Strassburg).

Anton Doeter was taxed in Heidelberg Twp, Lanchester Co, 1758 so he probably lived just over the border from Berks Co, but in Lanchester (today Lebanon Co). He had:

Jacob Adam born 15 Apr 1725 in Lubach according to Evang. Reformed Church, Lubach, K. Simmern, Prussia, F.0492977;

Maria Catharina born 18 Oct 1726 in Lubach according to Evang. Reformed Church, Lubach, K. Simmern, Prussia, F.0492977;

Johann Peter born 17 Jan 1732 in Lubach according to Evang. Reformed Church, Lubach, K. Simmern, Prussia, F.0492977;

Maria Barbara born 16 Feb 1734 in Lubach according to Evang. Reformed Church, Lubach, K. Simmern, Prussia, F.0492977;

The Zion Church in Wythe Co, VA and the St. Paul Lutheran Church in Wythe information. Some of these have been abstracted by Mary B. Kegley.

The Palatine Germans gave several sons the same first name as they did their daughters also. So in this country they went by their second name most times. Confusing but not as bad as having a Welsh line. <G>

Notes for JOHANN "JOHN" SR. TARTER:

From Kenneth V. Smith, Oct. 1, 1999 by e-mail.

Patty,

The Nancy Logan as wife of John Tarter comes from a book "The Darter-Tarter-Daughters Family," by Bertha Van Mondfrans Darter. I have a copy of that book. She got much of her information from a book "The Darter-Tarter Family," by Dr. Oscar H. Darter. Bertha mentions that there was another John Tarter whose wife was named Catherine but chooses Nancy Logan as the wife of our John but gives no proof of that claim, possibly because John had a son with Logan as a middle name.

In the annotated Baptismal Records of the St. Paul Lutheran Church, Wythe Co, VA, on pg. 8, is "Jacob Tarter, b. 21 Nov. 1794. Parents: Johannes Darter & Catharina. Bapt. 6 Apr. 1795. Sponsors: Frederick Mohr and frau." This Frederick Mohr was married to Elizabeth Kinser. Their daughter married Peter Tarter.

There is a deed in Pulaski Co, KY signed by John Tarter and wife, Catherine in 1842. My guess, and it is pure speculation, is that Catherine is the daughter of Frederick Mohr also since they sponsored Jacob's baptism. My guess is that my ancestor, Mary "Polly" Moore Tarter gets the name Moore (Mohr) from that source. However, this is pure speculation and should be used as a clue rather than fact. Disregard the guess "Littleton" since there is even a clue to that connection except that my ancestor, Ephriam Littleton Tarter, had that name as a middle name.

Bertha's book is a great source to have but has caused a lot of confusion among Tarter researchers.

The Will of Jacob Tarter (Source: Susan Chance-Rainwater)

December 21 1872 Russell Co., KY

Book 3 Page 293-294

Herriford Bottom Dec'r 21 1872

I, Jacob Tarter of Russell County, Kentucky, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, revoking all other wills [word and marked through; one or two words obliterated].

I first desire that after all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my personal estate. Second that my beloved wife Polly Ann have one third of personal estate and of my land on Cumberland river in Russell County, KY during her natural life. Third, it is my will and desire that the orphan children of my deceased son, Wesley Tarter, have one hundred acres of land that I own in the County of Pulaski on the waters of Faubush Creek adjoins Geo Cundiff, Tobe Tarter and F. Thomas. Having heretofore given lands to all my other children by my first wife and as I do not think they have for some years back treated me as they should have done, I will or give them nothing out of my estate. Fifth it is my will and desire that my two youngest sons (children of my [the word last marked through] present wife), William Thomas Tarter and Elias Jefferies Tarter, have all my home farm and land on the Cumberland river subject to the life estate heretofore will to their mother - at he[r] death to have the whole and I also give and bequeath to them William T. and Elias J. Tarter all my personal estate - cash, cash assets of all kinds, stock farming utencils and other property of all kind, both personal real, that I may be possessed of, not hereinbefore disposed of.

In testimony whereof I have this day set my hand and seal in the presents of William M. Green and George W. Eubank, the subscribing witnesses hereto.

Jacob Tarter [mark and seal]

Witness: W.M. Green, Geo. W. Eubank

Will was proved in Russell County court in December term, 1874 and "...ordered to be certified for record which is done accordingly. Given under my hand this 8th day of Jan'y 1875."

"Hon. J.T. Tartar, county judge of Pulaski County, Ky, was born in that county, December 18, 1850, a son of Enoch L. and Lucinda (Bernard) Tartar. Enoch Tartar was born in Pulaski County in 1822, and is a farmer, residing sixteen miles west of Somerset. He never aspired to office. He has been a strict member of the Baptist Church for many years and is a liberal contributor to all church and charitable organizations. He is a son of Chrisley Tartar, a native of Culpeper County, VA, who was a blacksmith by trade. Chrisley was a son of John Tartar, whose father was a native of Germany. Mrs. Lucinda Tartar was born in Russell County, KY, a daughter of Abner Bernard, also of Russell County. Judge Tartar received his education at the common schools and at the Masonic College, Somerset, KY. He commenced teaching school in 1868, and in all has taught twenty-three schools. In 1877 he was elected to the Legislature and re-elected in 1870. He read law and was admitted to the bar in 1881, and was elected county judge in 1882 and re-elected in 1880. January 4, 1872, he married Miss Maggie Weddle, of Pulaski County, KY, a daughter of Solomon and Patsey Weddle. Eight children have blessed their union, viz: Bettie G., Brutus C., Cassius M., Helen G., Anna C., Rosoco C., Jerome T. and Christian L. Mr. and Mrs. Tartar are members of the Baptist Church.
