Abstracts from Crawford
County, Ark., Newspapers
1994-

Every effort was made to extract all articles that were of genealogical or historical value. Although this is a Crawford County Arkansas Newspaper, much information is given on people in surrounding towns and states. I have tried to make no corrections to the original writings, with the exception of obvious misspellings. Names have been left exactly as they were written in the articles, even when they were spelled more than one way in the same article. I have included poetry, recipes, civil war articles and a few jokes from the newspapers to add to the interest of reading this book. My hope is that you will find at least one item of interest to you that you have been unable to find elsewhere. If you enjoyed the first one, you will enjoy this one more.

Sincerely,

Evelyn Williams

him, and we have no doubt a bright future of prominence and usefulness in his profession is before him.

WE ARE GREATLY PLEASED TO TAKE by the hand on Wednesday last, Major WOODRUFF, senior proprietor of that ably conducted paper the Little Rock Gazette. The Major, and his beautiful young wife, made a flying visit to the West for observation and recreation. We regret that their stay with us was so short, for it would please us to have demonstrated to them that although our city makes small pretensions, it is ever ready to do honor to its defenders and friends.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, occupied by the Rev. W. A. SAMPLE, of Fort Smith, was burnt down on Tuesday night last. Mr. SAMPLE loses most everything he has. He has the pity of a large circle of friends. But as Josh BILLINGS says: "Pity iz about the meanest wash that one man can offer another. I had rather have a ten dollar green back that had been torn in twice and pasted together, than to have all the pity thare iz on the upper side of the earth." Appreciating the sentiment of Mr. BILLINGS, we'll go a Y. Knowing the Reverend has admirers and friends on thi side of the river, books are open at this office.

ESTRAY NOTICE: WE, James ELLISON, Wm. H. BURCHFIELD, and Abraham M. KEE, three citizens of the County of Crawford and householders therein having thereto been appointed by John S. RAINWATER, a Justice of the Peace of said County have this day viewed a certain mare, shown to us by James GUFLEY, as an Estray. Said mare is a bay, fourteen hands high, 6 years old and branded on the left shoulder with the letters supposed to be S. F., with three small white spots on the right thigh; some saddle marks, and we value said mare to be worth $35. Done this the 29th day of Nov. 1869. James ELLISON, Wm. H. BURCHFIELD, Abraham M. KEE. Appraisers. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 29th day of Nov. 1869. John S. RAINWATER, J. P.

TAX NOTICE. THE COLLECTOR of Taxes for Crawford Co. Ark. will attend at the different Election Precincts, in the County on the days and dates below specified for the purpose of Collecting the Taxes for the year 1869.
