Obituary of D. T. Rainwater, 1845-1913, Texas Comrade Rainwater died at his home on Feb. 9 1913. He was born in Roswell, Georgia Aug. 11 1845. At the age of 16 years, he entered the Confederate Army as a member of the 22d Georgia Regiment, served throughout the war, and was in the surrender at Appomattox. He then returned to his home, and with his kindred and boyhood friends in northern Georgia, went to work for the rebuilding of the south. A year or so later, with many of the younger element, and accompanied by his wife, went overland to Texas. About 1872, he went to Dallas, and since then had been a businessman and resident of that city.
>From resolutions passed by Camp Sterling Price, U.C.V., Dallas, Texas.
