The following deaths are reported from Toombsboro: Mrs. Diona Dowriney, Mrs. Elcy Payne and Mr. T. D. Fordham.

WASHINGTON COUNTY NEWS.

Mr. Henry Taylor, a prominent citizen of our county, is in a critical condition from a stroke of paralysis.

Hon. J. N. Gilmore has recovered from a spell of sickness.

Dr. J. B. Roberts has been appointed postmaster in place of Mr. E. A. Sullivan at Sandersville. He is said to be a worthy man. Mr. Sullivan filled the office 15 years.

Mr. Willie Daniels, attending Eastman Business College, is very low with inflammatory rheumatism. He died.

Mr. R. A. Roughton, Sheriff, was married on the 24th of April to Miss Kate Galaway, of Thomaston.

HANCOCK COUNTY NEWS.

The strength of Dr. W. L. Alfriend, Mr. Henry Rogers and Rev. Josiah Lewis continues to fall. Patriarchs, one and all, they are nearing their everlasting homes, feebly, but in great peace and assurance of a better life to come.

From the Times & Planter, we learn that Mrs. Mary A. Alfriend died on the 25th of April, and Dr. William L. Alfriend died on the 27th of April.

[Mr. C. E. Wheeler and Miss D. N. Rainwater, and Mr. J. B. Reid and Miss A. H. Wheeler, were married, at Powelton, on the 14th, and 17th of April.

GEORGIA PRESS.

Mr. Henry L. Collins, of Atlanta, and Miss Nettie Sheffield, of Americus, were married April 19th.

Miss Minnie Knowles, of Greenesboro, Ga., and Mr. E. D. Jones, of the same place, were married on Easter Sunday, by the bride's father, Rev. Joshua Knowles.

The Coroner's Jury, in the case of the assassination of Mr. Mitson Melton, of Marion County, brought in a verdict that he came to his death from a shotgun in the hands of Oliver P. Jones, and that it was a case of murder in the first degree.

DIED.

Mrs. Sindonia Snow, for many years a resident of this city, died recently in Philadelphia, at the advanced age of 93 years. Her old age was made comfortable by the tender care and affection of her granddaughter, Mrs. Mary E. Lambert.
