

MISSOURI PIONEERS

COUNTY AND GENEALOGICAL RECORDS

+ + + + +

Public Library

FEB 25 1970

Dallas, Texas

VOLUME V

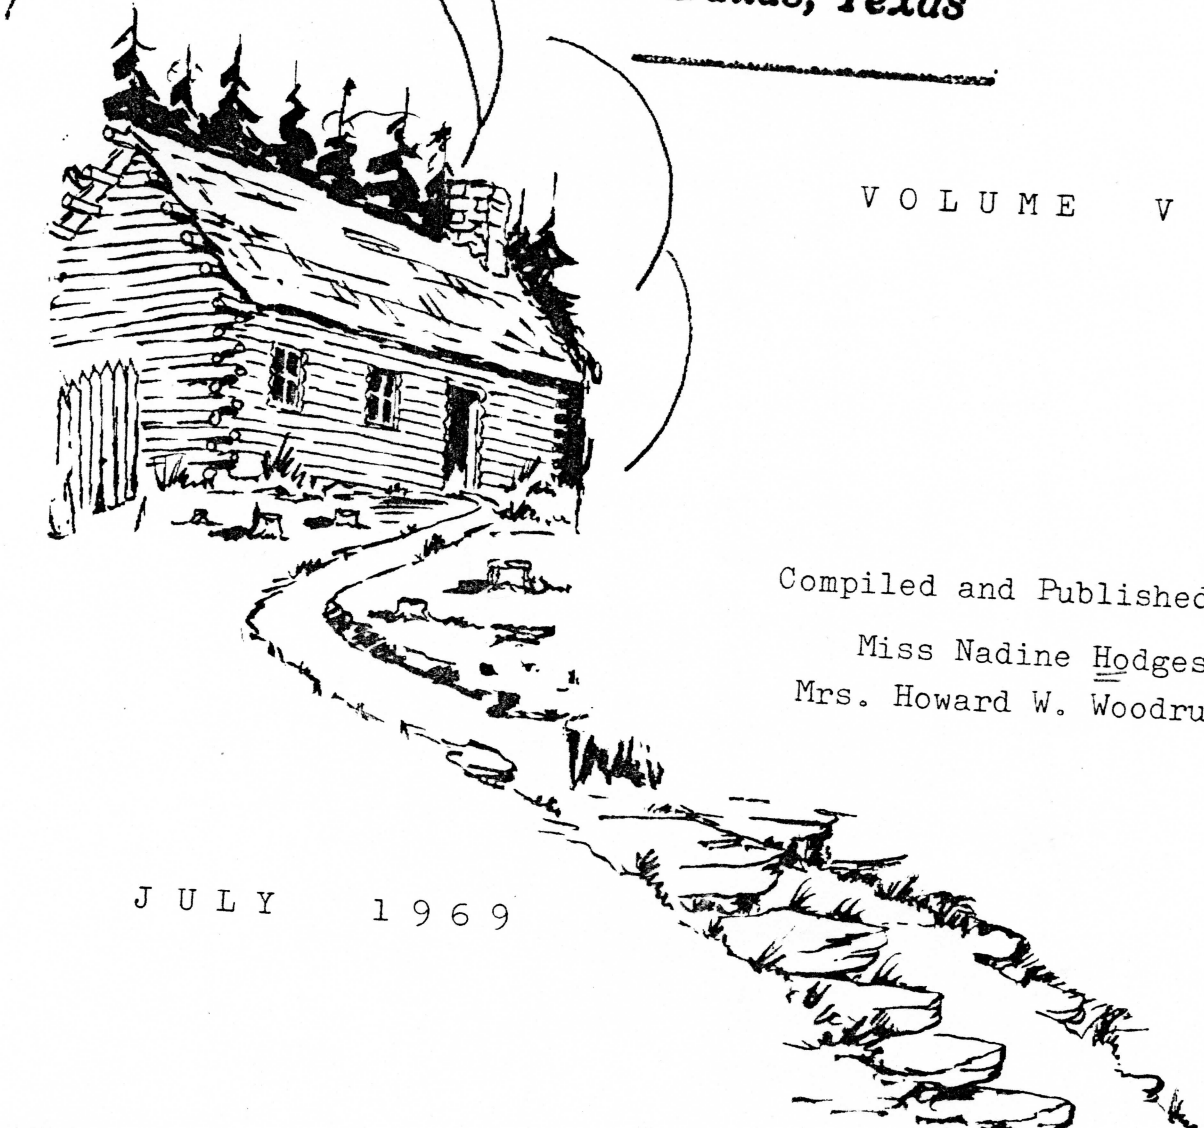

Compiled and Published by -

Miss Nadine Hodges

Mrs. Howard W. Woodruff

JULY 1969

#839

Lived several years in Tenn. and Ky., and died in Cass Co., Mo. on Feb. 8, 1852. By H. N. Watts.

CLOEY SMITH, wife of William Smith, living in Goldengrove, Jasper Co., Mo., died on the 26 Jan. 1852. Born in N.Y., where she was married, and then moved to Mo. Lived to see all her children settled in life. Was age 56. Methodist over 45 years. By Jas. T. Davenport.

April 1, 1852

MICHAEL NEWMAN, Esq., died at son's residence in Jefferson City, Mo., 11 March, age 62. Moved with his family from Pendelton Co., Va. to Mo. in 1836, and soon located in this city. Left wife and four children.

Mrs. LAURINE, wife of Mr. Perrigrine EARICKSON, died Feb. 25, 1852, age about 56. Left children. By C. J. Vandeventer, Glasgow, Mo.

JAMES C. PRICE died March 7th at the residence of John W. Mitchell in Crawford Co. He was born in Jackson Co., Tenn., in 1825. In 1844, to Mo., where he spent rest of his life.

JAMES K. POLK RAINWATER, second son of Dr. M. F. Rainwater (formerly a member of the Holston Conference) died in Millville, Ray Co., Mo. of pneumonia on Mar. 5th, age 7 years, 2 months.

ALLEN W. BROWN, born in Charlotte Co., Va., Oct. 25, 1803, and died March 19, 1852 in Franklin Co., Mo. To Mo. in 1832. Left a wife. Written by E. E. Degge.

Mrs. ALIZA S. STONE, wife of William G. Stone, formerly of Livingston Co., Mo., died at the residence of J. W. Tucker, M.D., in Brunswick, Mo., March 28, 1852, of pulmonary consumption, age 25. She was daughter of Alexander TUCKER of Cooper Co., and was married in 1825. Had one child which died in infancy. Written by P. M. Pinckard.

April 22, 1852

Dr. HEZEKIAH D. MAULSBY died in New Madrid Co., Mo., on Feb. 22, age 52 years. By George W. Bushey.

JOHN A RICKMAN, to the writer of precious memory, was born Sumner Co., Tenn., Jan. 9, 1815; professed religion at Crenshaw's Camp Ground, Aug., 1834; died in Lafayette Co., Mo., March 29, 1852 of typhoid and pneumonia. By P. O. Clayton from Wellington, Mo.

POLLY ANN MARGARET LYNCH, daughter of Andrew and Sarah FORT, born Dec. 13, 1813, and raised in Warren Co., Mo. Married David Lynch on Big Piney River, Nov. 9, 1837, where she died Feb. 24, 1852. By T. H. Smith from Houston, Texas Co., Mo.