THE SOUTH CAROLINA BAPTIST

and manly protection of him whom she had chosen as the companion of her life, she left her home in Greenville to accompany her husband to the distant land of Germany, where he was pursuing his studies in the University of Heidelberg. they then expected to return in about one year. But ere this time had rolled around, a dreadful war-cloud overhung their native land. The ports were blockaded... On the 14th of June, after a prosperous voyage, they arrived safely in Darlington, the paternal home of the male partner. Here they remained for several weeks, pleasantly visiting among his relatives.... Two sweet little girls, one only nine months old, are left without a mother's tender care.... T. H. L. Darlington, S. C., Aug. 6, 1866.
