Your Rainwater Line
is in THIS Issue!!!!

Wouldn’t that be great? To have your branch of the Rainwater family tree spread out across the pages of this newsletter for all to see. Well it could be true. All you need to do is send me an article for publication and it can become a reality. The entire membership gets this newsletter and then I am sure it gets passed around a bit too!!!! So there are a lot of people out there who just might have the missing piece to YOUR puzzle and it would be a shame to have it remain hidden for the next 100 years or so, so get out that notepad, plop in that floppy, and send me a portion of your Rainwater family that I can share with our membership.

As the start of the fourth year of our organization is underway, we have certainly come a great distance and gained new ground in our efforts to find the TRUTH out about our Rainwater heritage. But.... we have just begun to scratch the surface!!! There are more hidden facts out there I am certain that are going to help us all to make the the true knowledge about the early years of our Rainwater family in America common knowledge in all of our households.

This newsletter is solely committed to helping in this process. I appreciate all of the raw data that I receive from members, but the time it takes to put it in a usable format is considerable and as this is a “one man show” so to speak, any efforts by any of our membership can only help me to meet the time frames set out for each quarterly issue to appear.

Please feel free to send in even small articles as long as they have a tie into the Rainwater family or even genealogical research resources that are available. It cannot be copyrighted material, but you can summarize things and cite where the basic information came from and then I can use it to give this vital information to our readership. Will step down from the pulpit now and once again thank everyone for their support and look forward to increased help from the membership to put all of the different branches of this tree between the pages of this newsletter!!!!
What was once THESE Hypotheses, or CONJECTURE is now FACT!!!!

If you have a copy of Volume 2 Issue 3 to refer to, you will have a better understanding of the information that has been corroborated by new evidence uncovered on my branch of the Rainwater family. This has been and continues to be just like many of you, an exercise in determination and lots of waiting.

Just to recap a little, of course like many of you I was handed many a document showing my ancestral connection to John Rainwater and his wife Mary Fussell. Had I not lifted my head out of the sand, I would have been content all this time, safe in the knowledge of who my Rainwater ancestors were and perhaps even creating some of my own made up stories to add colour to my heritage. But..... I had to question things, and that opened up a big barrel of worms.

My original tree showed that John and Mary were the parents of John Rainwater Jr., who was the father of Moses Rainwater Sr., who was the father of Moses Rainwater Jr., who was the father of Moses Fowler Rainwater, my direct ancestor. I even had this real neat chart made by R.H. Folmar that showed all this good stuff. There was of course no evidence to prove this information, but hey, there wasn’t any to disprove it then either!!!! Not until I got a hold of that chart!!!! Then it fell apart with leaps and bounds. For one, there is no proof to my knowledge that John’s son John ever married or had any children. Some claim that he moved to SC and is listed in both 1790 census records for NC and SC, because one was reconstructed from 1787 census and the other was not, but the actual 1790 census (or at least that is how the story I was told goes!). Then if you look at the NC 1790 census (1787), you will easily see that Moses is far too old to be the son of John Jr. even if you close your eyes and click your heels together three times it will not work!!!!

Then you have the Moses Sr. and Moses Jr. to contend with and as I have stated in a previous issue, Jr. did not always connote the “son of” but merely “the younger” of two with that name. But giving the benefit of the doubt, it is still possible that Moses Jr. is the son of Moses Sr., BUT... does it necessarily follow that Moses Fowler Rainwater was the third in direct descent to carry the name Moses? No, it does not. And Moses Fowler Rainwater did not name either of his two sons Moses which makes one think that this was probably not the case.

The naming pattern of second son carrying the father’s name would mean that Moses Fowler Rainwater’s father would have been named James. M.F. Rainwater’s eldest son was named Charles after his wife’s father, Charles Yarbrough Oliver. Then from the previous article we saw the transcription of a document inserted into the bible of a descendant of James Rainwater and Delilah Kifer, the brother and sister-in-law to my Moses Fowler Rainwater, we see that the second son born to James Rainwater Sr. was in fact Moses Fowler Rainwater, it would make sense that James Sr.’s father may well have been Moses Rainwater Sr. That would make Moses Rainwater Jr. an uncle of Moses Fowler Rainwater, and not his father.
So where is all the new data, Robert???? Okay. Here it is. But let me draw you a diagram and explain it so you will understand. According to the bible record, (some of which we can prove is incorrect by the way) the family was displayed like this:

FATHER- James Rainwater  b. about 1780

MOTHER- Catherin Regan  (the info here IS wrong and I can prove it)

Real MOTHER- Charity Fowler  b. 1780 in NC
d. aft 1850 in ???(IL, TN, AR or MO probably)

CHILDREN—
John N. Rainwater  b. 1798 in NC
sp-Barbara Emmert

Moses Fowler Rainwater  b. 18 Jul 1804 in Richmond Co., NC
sp-Elizabeth Clay Oliver

James Rainwater  b. 1811 in NC
sp-Delilah Kifer
sp-Julia Jane Sanderson

Cessum Rainwater  b. 1812 in NC sp-Unknown
sp-Mourning Hill
sp-Elisabeth Hard-Cummins

Ann Rainwater  b. 1824 in TN
sp-Burrell Henderson Wright

Another mistake was the following child listed. While there may have been a daughter by this name, she was not married to this Baker as the record suggests, but was in actuality the sister of Delilah Kifer and the author of the record was a descendant of this branch, so the confusion is understandable. Same with the mother. There was a Reagan/Regan branch on the Emmett branch of this same person’s tree, so once again the author was remembering things a little incorrectly, but I do not feel that it destroys the validity of the other information that was contained there, since records have born its validity recently.

So once again, where is the new data? Well, in the earlier piece I discussed how I went about making the ties to this bible record and then beginning to set out to prove or disprove the information. One of the main points that I had conjectured, and believed although I was still looking for proof, was on the line of Cessum Rainwater. I had located Cessum Rainwater in the following records:
1840  U.S. Federal Census  Marshall County, TN  page 197

Cessom Rainwater
1M under 5
1M 20-30
1F under 5
1F 20-30

1850  U.S. Federal Census  Massac Co., IL  page ______

Sessum Rainwater  38M  Farmer  b in NC
Elizabeth  29F  b in KY
James  9M  b in TN
Sarah J.  7F  b in IL

The reason that this was such a great find was for two reasons and a shocking coincidence. Reason one was that I just happened to be desperately looking for a Cessum Rainwater in the census index books for 1850 and was going to check everywhere for him, but also remembered that that bible record said that he had died young, but that young could mean just about anything and I thought that I had better not leave any stone unturned. Reason two was that in the adjoining county had Rainwaters in it too, namely Ann Rainwater Wright with her husband Burrell and children AND her mother Charity Rainwater. There was also Mathew Rainwater and wife Mahala Snapp and children and his father is believed to have been Moses Rainwater Jr. The Anne Rainwater must have been the youngest daughter on my list and the cousins of my branch tagged along. The reason that this Anne must be the daughter is that her brother James and her family both end up in Washington Co., AR and other reasons listed in the earlier article.

And the shocking coincidence which I may have mentioned before was that Cessom’s wife Elisabeth Hard-Cummins was a sister to the direct ancestor of Barbara Ramsey, wife of Jim Ramsey who are the owners of the McDonald’s which I supervise!!!! Now how is that for a coincidence. And she would be a double-cousin to the descendants of Cessom Rainwater and Elisabeth Hard-Cummins, because Elisabeth and Lucy Ann Hard’s natural father was Peter Cummins, and Lucy Ann Hard married Peter’s brother, Samuel Cummins, her natural uncle!!!!

Also in the previous article I explained that I found three girls living in Benton Co., MO in 1870 with what I then believed was their uncle James Rainwater Jr., brother to my Moses Fowler Rainwater, but had not definitive proof. Well, this is where the new information comes into play and helps strengthen my case to the point of proven I believe, if at least in general terms.

While surfing the NET I ran into (or was it she ran into me????) Jeannie Waggoner Voges who had been doing research on her Rainwater connection (actually I believe it is her husband’s line) and found that she was researching 2 of the three girls that had appeared on the 1870 census, all showing that they were born in IL in the late 1840’s to early 50’s. BTW, the girls were Matilda and Charity(hmmmmm...... is that a coincidence... NOT!) Rainwater, and also Sarah Jane Beard (probably widowed and the Sarah J. Rainwater from the 1850 IL census too). I told her that I had the death certificate for Matilda who had married George C. Scott (not the actor<G>) and it said unknown for both parents. I gave her marching orders to go and find Charity’s death certificate and see if we might luck out.........Guess what??????????????????????????? find Charity Rainwater Harvey's death certificate. Within a very short time I received an email and then came the snail mail containing the following very, very, very, very, very important document:

Here is the death certificate for Mrs. Charity Rainwater Harvey, formerly of Cole Camp, Benton Co., MO, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Virgil Randsell at Passo, Benton Co., MO. Death was due to paralysis. The attack came early on a Friday morning and she passed away before noon.

The funeral service was conducted at Mt. Pleasant Church, being conducted by Rev. W. S. Weir of Warsaw. Burian was in the church cemetery.

Charity Rainwater was born in IL in 1856 but lived most of her life in Benton Co, MO. In 1874 she married John Harvey and had 9 children, five living upon her decease: J.W. Harvey of near Passo, Mrs. Effie M. Neff of Warsaw, Mrs. Etta Randsell of Passo, and W.C. and L. F. Harvey of Warsaw. Mrs. Jake Failer of Edmonson is a sister. Mrs. Harvey was a faithful member of the Baptist church.
Well this one record pretty neatly sews up the whole family record in my opinion. It confirms my suspicions about the ancestry of the 2 and maybe all 3 of the IL born girls living with James Rainwater Jr. in Benton Co., MO in 1870, and by proving they were Cessom’s kids (at least the two for sure) then we know that James Jr. is Cessom’s brother, because there is also not another Cessom listed anywhere that could have been his brother but this Cessom, and with Cessom naming a daughter Charity, John N. Rainwater naming a daughter Charity Elisabeth Catherine, I think we can put to rest any doubts that Charity Rainwater living with the Wright family is none other than the mother of this Rainwater family!!!!!!! If anyone disagrees or thinks that I am still not able to without question claim this, please let me know. I cannot see how this could be wrong. But I am willing to have someone else show me where I lack substantial proof and will look for more.

Can I say then that James Rainwater Sr. is the name of the father of all these children from the bible record and husband to Charity which I believe is now proven to be the mother of the kids?????????? Less sure of this one I must say. And, I am definitely going to look for more proof that the father’s name is James and not Moses. The reason for this is that I have seen passed around a family group sheet that lists Moses Rainwater married to Charity Fowler and she is born in 1780 in NC and dies in 1850 in IL. This is something that was done many many years ago, and wonder if they were on the right/same track as I or did they have a piece of data that I don’t that would prove that Moses Jr. was the father. There is also the 1830 and 1840 TN censuses to contend with also. James Rainwater does not appear on either census. Here is a listing of the Rainwaters that were listed in Sevier Co., TN:

So if you go by census records alone, you would think that Moses Rainwater Jr. is by far and away the likely candidate. His age, and his wife's look to be correct. And of course, no James is listed, but then again, Moses Fowler Rainwater would have been 32 and just 2 years from getting married in Anderson Co., TN and I have him witnessing deeds in Campbell Co., TN, and yet he does not appear on the census records either until 1840 in MO. So, go figure. Just because there is not a record does not mean that the answer is that he didn't exist. But on the other hand, according to more rumor, their father died sometime in 1841 or so in TN or someplace. We have a widow Charity Fowler living in IL in 1850. Could this mean that the James that I am looking for is Moses Jr?? The jury will remain out on this until more proof can be found. There is even the possibility that all of the children were not listed on that bible record, but then what is that Mathew Rainwater's relation to my line?

Matthew shows up on Johnson Co., IL in 1850 and then Washington Co., AR in 1860 near James Rainwater Jr. and Burrell H. Wright and wife Anne Rainwater Wright. I still say based on what I have on Mathew that he is the son of Moses Jr. as well as possibly John Berry Rainwater and another son whose wife and kids were also in Johnson Co., IL in 1850. There must be a connection as they go from TN to IL and then to AR and go to the same areas of each (except John Berry Rainwater did not go to IL that I know of).

Well, if anyone out there can add, subtract, change or modify any of this data, please feel free to let me know. I welcome any and all comments and wish to lead by example and not state unequivocally that I know this to be 100% correct, but at present, the evidence sure leads in no other direction that I am aware of.
Katie McCall Rainwater's Cabin in Jefferson Co., TN

For all who have the first couple years’ issues, and for any who are descended from James Rainwater and Katie McCall Rainwater of Jefferson Co., TN, above you will see a picture sent to us by Robert C. Rainwater of Seville, OH. This was taken in 1966 and was the cabin used by Katie McCall Rainwater. According to Robert, he believes back in 1966 the cabin was located on Hollow Rd. at Sandy Ridge. The letter that was placed in the newsletter in installments was actually written to Robert and he and his wife visited Nelle 3 times while she was still alive. Thanks Robert and sorry it took so long to make it in the newsletter!!!
RIGHT: This is a picture of the door to the cabin and where Katie used to sit while she would sew.

BELOW: This is the inside of the cabin and is a view of the hearth or fireplace. This is where Katie would make her "Abe Link" coffee and presumably cook her meals and keep warm in the winter.

LEFT: This dapper looking fellow is none other than Dr. Rev. Moses Fowler Rainwater, born in Richmond Co., NC in 1804, less than 3 generations tops from the earliest records for John and William Rainwater. Indians did not have facial hair and in these quantities. Looks European to me!

RIGHT: And here we have a photo of Moses Fowler Rainwater’s brother (definitely, 100% certifiably his brother) James Rainwater who married Delilah Kifer. Once again we note the definite European influences on his DNA. It does appear that the earliest Rainwaters were not of pure American Indian blood, but many may have married into the many tribes over time.

I am seeking information on my great great grandparents, Elzra William "Bill" Clark and Rebecca W. Henderson Clark.

Bill was born in Tennessee on 3 November 1821 and is buried at Clark Cemetery, Wayne Co., MO. I would like to find the names and other vital information on his parents.

Rebecca was born 12 April 1831 in Tennessee and died 14 April 1914 and is buried with her husband in Clark Cemetery, Wayne Co., MO. Her father was William Henderson. I would like to find the name of her mother and any other pertinent information.

According to information my mother has given me, the Clarks came into Missouri by way of Kentucky. This is unverified though.

Bill’s date of birth taken from one of his daughters’ bible. Bill and Rebecca were found to be living in Wayne Co., MO for the 1860 census. The 1860 census shows their oldest child, Mary, as being born in Tennessee. Since Mary was listed as 13 at that time, there were in Tennessee still in 1847. The 9 year old son, James, was shown as being born in Missouri but in the 1870 census, his state of birth was given as Tennessee.

Bill and Rebecca's daughter Nancy Jane Clark, born 25 October 1858 in Greenville, MO, was my great grandmother and I am trying to verify any indian blood. My mother has always said Nancy Jane was part Cherokee- she was the midwife for a large number of Wayne County women.

Nancy Jane Clark's husband was George Washington Rainwater!!!!
